Worth writing about...

Many of us can only dream of having a street named after us someday, but for four young Romulus residents, it's a dream come true — at least for a week.

If one visits the 9400 block of Washington, they'll actually be on Markowski Street. Part of Mountain Way is now Forbes Street, part of Lynn will be known as Beck, and the 7300 block of Taft has a sign up proclaiming it Bridenthal Street.

It's not as confusing as it sounds, and the reason for the temporary changes is a good one — in honor of the first-place winners in the city-wide school essay contest, they each have a street christened after them. Red signs bearing the new names will be on top of the normal green ones this week.

The contest was sponsored by the Romulus Parents Area Council. The first place finishers were third-grader Barbara Markowski, Cory; Michelle Bridenthal, fifth grade, Wick; eighth-grader Jennifer Beck, Romulus Junior High; and Juanita Forbes, an 11th-grader at Romulus High School.

The young women received their street signs from Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally at the Romulus Week Festival last week (photo at right).

Here are two of the winning essays, from the lower elementary and upper elementary winners:

1st Place Lower Elementary
Barbara Markowski Essay

My School Principal is Great Because . . .

My school is Cory. My Principal is Mrs. Badgett. Mrs. Badgett came to Cory after the school year had started because our regular Principal, Mrs. Newman was out sick.

Mrs. Badgett is very nice, but she disciplines those who need it. She is very sweet when she talks to you, and is very kind. I bet she is very much like that at home too.

I have many reasons for liking Mrs. Badgett. When she disciplines those that are brought to the office for fighting and destroying school property or doing other bad things, I know that she is only doing it for the good of the person, for the future of our school, and other children of Romulus.

I do wish that people would stop saying bad things about our schools and saying things like "the teachers don't care and principals are no good" and all those other bad things. I know Mrs. Badgett does care and proves it every day. Maybe if the kids had somebody to care at home like my mom does, they would do better in school and not blame the principals and teachers all the time. I hope Mrs. Badgett stays at Cory forever or at least until I get out of the sixth grade, which will be three more years. I really would not mind if she read this essay, maybe it would let her know she is appreciated. Cory is a good school with a wonderful principal. Thank you, Mrs. Badgett, for just being you.

Romulus Needs . . .

Romulus needs to be a cleaner place. People should gather up and clean up the papers, and boxes from our messy town. The streets are messy, the alleys are messy, and I think the people of Romulus should help it be a nicer place to live or people are going to leave and Romulus will be nothing.

Romulus needs more places to go and more places to play. We need parks for the children to play in. Romulus also needs restaurants, and grocery stores because everybody needs food. Stores need more things to buy like plant seeds because no human or animal can live without plants.

Romulus needs more money for the schools. People need to vote so our schools can stay open and children can learn and grow up and have a job to earn money. Maybe they will remember what school did for them. Then they might vote to help the schools stay open.

Romulus needs a security system to help protect the people of Romulus from crime. All the rapes and killings need to be stopped. If crime is not stopped there will be few people left in Romulus. I just hope some people will help.

Lucas gets involved in 'Airport' landfill

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

Wayne County Executive William Lucas has expressed his concern over the proposed "airport landfill", which would be located at Sibley Road and I-275, and has so far received mixed reviews.

Last Wednesday, Lucas called Wayne County Commissioner Milt Mack out of a meeting of the Michigan Solid Waste Planning Commission and offered a plan: to name a substitute site in the event BFI Industries were to win and get the OK for their landfill.

"I suggested that language not go in the plan," said Mack, "I just don't think that would be a good way to go tactically."

Mack stated that in his opinion, the involvement of Lucas in the project "reflects a concern by his office. They're very worried about the airport, and they're afraid that a landfill could go in there and damage the airport as a viable economic institution."

"But," said Mack, "I think there are better ways to make sure that doesn't happen without substituting another site." Some feel that this could arbitrarily add another landfill to the area even if the BFI site should be denied.

"I feel that the plan will be adopted without BFI being specifically included. They could still be added down the road if the committee voted to put them in following the completion of the bird study," added Mack.

Studies are currently underway regarding the potential hazard birds attracted to the landfill would have on incoming and outgoing flights.

"However," Mack said, "I feel there are many objections to that site that go beyond the issue of the birds. I think there are a lot of reasons why the BFI site shouldn't be allowed in the plan."

"I, for one, do not feel bound to a study conducted by the developer. There have been other bird studies done, but all of those address themselves to trying to solve existing problems. In this case, you have a situation where no problem exists, and it's proposed that one be created, and then we try and mitigate it. And I think that's a very, very poor way to go," Mack said. "It only takes one bird to bring a jet down."

"I know where Mr. Lucas is coming from — he doesn't want that landfill in Huron Township," said Mack. "But hopefully I'll be able to persuade the Executive's office that the best way to fight that is to fight it head on, and not to suggest a compromise. At this point, I feel we have a good chance to prevent the BFI site from ever being developed, and a proposed compromise could take some of the momentum and turn it around. We could very possibly end up with a landfill we didn't even need in the first place."

Huron Township Board member Gary Bates firmly believes that Lucas should become more involved in the landfill matter — "And not in a negative manner. There are a lot of possible conclusions to this, such as incineration, that need to be looked into. The real question is this," said Bates, "whether or not Bill Lucas wants to carry not only Huron Township, but every single community that has a dumpsite problem!"

Wick Talent Show

There will be a student-sponsored talent show at 7 p.m. on Thursday, May 31, at Wick Elementary School, 36900 Wick.

According to one of the organizers, Sheila Stasak, there will be 30 different acts incorporating approximately 120 students, all of whom created their own acts and have been practicing them for two months after school and on their own time.

Other organizers, also teachers, include Gretchen Firestone and Diane Golka.

Sign up for karate classes

The Romulus Recreation is now taking registration for their summer Karate classes. The classes are $20.00 per registrant for the 10-week program. Classes will be held at the City Hall Community room on Fridays from 6 to 8 p.m., beginning July 6.

The program is open to everyone. To register call the Recreation Department at 941-0666 ext. 254.

Open Volleyball

Open volley ball is still going on at North Junior High every Monday evening from 6:30 to 9 p.m. It costs 50 cents, and it's an excellent way to shape up for the coming summer fashions.

For further information, contact the Recreation Department at 941-0666 ext. 254.

Post Office news

Groundbreaking for the new Romulus Post Office is tentatively scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday, June 15. The site, which is at Hunt and Goddard, is currently occupied by the old foundry.

Tennis, anyone?

The Romulus Recreation is trying to begin a tennis program. At this time they are looking for a tennis director. If you have any experience in working with all ages in tennis, contact Debbie at the Recreation Department at 941-0666 ext. 254.

If you are interested in taking tennis lessons, the department is arranging classes for all ages and experience. For further information contact the recreation department.

Students to compete

The Romulus School Board has authorized the expenditure of $978 to supplement funds raised by the Health Occupation Students of America (H.O.S.A.) to send two advisors to the national H.O.S.A. competition in Orlando, Fla., on June 27.

The school board also approved a finger-printing program, which will be run by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department for all elementary schools.

Taxing news

Summer tax bills will be payable at Romulus City Hall, beginning July 1, according to City Assessor Mathew Raftary.

Even if you are paying your taxes through your mortgage company, state law allows that each homeowner receive a copy of this statement.

If you are not receiving your copy, or if it is in someone else's name, it could be that city records do not indicate that you are the owner of record. When property changes hands, in normal real estate transactions, the deed to purchased property is recorded with the County Register of Deeds. The county then assumes that the new property owner will inform the city as to name changes on water bills, assessment records and tax bills.

Property owners who have not received a tax bill are still responsible for payments of taxes. If you have reason to believe that your name is not registered with the city, you can present a copy of your deed or land contract to either the Assessor's or Treasurer's Office and proper forms will be filed to have the name changed.

Workshop a success

Romulus students who attended the writers' workshop at Wayne County Intermediate District on Monday, May 21 were fine ambassadors for Romulus.

Each of the fifty-five students was able to choose one of four subjects — poetry, short stories, non-fiction, or journalism. Speakers were professional writers-authors, journalists and poets.

The students each received a copy of a book containing the winning entries in SCISD writing contest. Some of our young people were impressed that "kids" could write so well.

The students seemed able to relate to some of the difficulties experienced by the speakers when they were struggling to establish their careers.

The speakers included authors Florence Pike, Carolyn Vasberg Hall and Dudley Randall, as well as Detroit News columnist Leola Floren.

Time for plain English

What would a contract be without a heavy dose of legal mumbo jumbo? Understandable, for openers.

The State Legislature is considering a series of bills that would, in effect, require plain English in contracts. House Bill 4065 would mandate that consumer contracts, including insurance contracts, be written in language that is understandable to most adults with common, everyday meanings rather than legal or technical jargon.

Descriptions of real estate and language required by state or federal law would be exceptions to the law. The legislation, which includes House Bill 4065, would prohibit asking a consumer to sign a contract not written in plain English. If enacted, the bills would give businesses one year to revise their contracts to meet readability standards.

House Bill 4065 is under study in the Senate Judiciary Committee after being approved in the House by a 71-34 vote.

Each day a consumer is routinely asked to sign contracts, ranging from simple credit card purchase agreements to complex insurance policies, that contain language difficult to understand. "Beware of the fine print" has become a common warning. And far too accurate a warning, in our opinion.

Senate passage of House Bill 4065 would not cure all ills because defining readability standards is a difficult task. However, it would establish certain guidelines regarding acceptable and unacceptable language.

Consumers need the type of protection House Bill 4065 would help to provide. A vote for plain English is a vote in the best interests of all consumers.

Say 'yes' to students

Their heads bloody but unbowed, the Van Buren School Board Trustees are again asking voters to approve a 6.5-mill increase on the June 11 ballot.

Last August, voters rejected an identical request by several hundred votes. Other requests for an increase have been rejected ... and rejected for the past half-dozen years. "We get very jealous of districts that can actually think of expanding, not cutting programs," says School Superintendent Elvin Peets, noting the schools' current deficit of $330,000.

The June date marks a depressing anniversary of sorts for school officials. The graduating class this year will be the first class to leave high school never having known anything other than a five-hour school day. The five-hour day is a by-product of the school's financial plight. So is the elimination of art, music, and physical education in the elementary levels.

We believe Van Buren's schoolchildren deserve better than that.

Opponents of millage increases — who tend to be absent at all school board meetings and visible only at the polls — base their nay-saying on several grounds. The schools just need to tighten their belts. Or, property taxes are too high as it is. Or we paid for-our-kids-and-now-let-others-pay-for-theirs.

We take exception to these arguments. Peets and his staff have dealt responsibly and resourcefully with their district's red ink woes. Their cost controlling and cost saving measures include large and small steps such as reducing the number of parking lot lights ($6,500), installing a new telephone system ($25,000 annually), and collecting taxes in summer ($150,000 a year.)

No one likes to pay taxes. Like others in the state, area residents are no strangers to hard times. But it could be noted that a 6.5 mill increase translates to an additional $195 a year for the owner of a $60,000 house. That's $16.25 a month. Many people wouldn't hesitate a moment to sink that much into a cable TV contract.

We also don't feel that quality education — like adequate health care of a decent diet — shouldn't stop with your own kids.

Only 20 percent of the voters turned down the millage request last August. We hope the majority of Van Buren voters cast a ballot on behalf of the majority's interest — and say "yes" to the schools' request for some help.

Yes, we have no bananas- Part 2

Someone once remarked, "The American free enterprise system is terrible. It just happens to be the best system on earth." Small business in our free enterprise system holds the greatest, if not the only, hope for economic renewal in Michigan and in the country as a whole.

We in the newspaper business, along with so many other small business owners and operators, have just traveled down a long, hard economic road. Most particularly in southeastern Michigan, advertisers in Associated Newspapers have been hurt so badly that many of the most recognizable business names have ceased to exist. Car dealers, real estate agents and grocery stores to name a few, are no more. They have gone out of business, leaving us and others with debts that cannot be collected. Such business failures have impacted on us so heavily that at times it has threatened our existence. But we are still here, and will continue to be here.

Someone else once said, "If you continue to do business today as you did business yesterday, you probably won't have a tomorrow." When confronted with heavy competition from large companies, one must change.

It's a jungle out there! We enjoy the fight or we wouldn't be here, but we are a small company surrounded by giants. We could be run over by any one of them and they would never even feel the bump.

In order to compete with that kind of financial backing that supports the major dailies, Advo, Radio, television and a number of our competitors, we have been changing our format, our staff, and our product availability while attempting to hold down our advertising rates and cut back on our expenses. Our alternative is to cease to exist.

We aren't a big company or a large corporation. We're a local newspaper. We offer a product which we believe offers our readers a timely community news source and our advertisers a product that can make their cash registers ring. That, of course, depends a great deal upon you.

Certainly the advertiser must offer a value to you the consumer or he or she doesn't deserve your patronage. But when the advertiser gives you value and you learn of that product or service through an ad in this newspaper, why not make a point of telling the owner, manager or sales representative that you are there because you saw his ad here?

If you would like a better local newspaper, one that provides more local news, you are not alone. Nothing would please us more than the extended individualized attention in news content for each community that many of our readers indicate they would like. But advertising is what makes the difference, and as much as we would like to cater solely to the likes of our readers, economics dictate otherwise.

If you haven't noticed, there is not a long line of volunteers to provide local news for our communities. Shoppers, coupon packs and the like, are relatively cheap to produce and require little or nothing in return to the community. The woods are full of them.

We, too, now offer shopper products in most of our communities for those who feel that is what they want. However, we continue to believe that the newspaper offers the greatest all-around value to the advertiser and reader.

If the merchants you frequent are not regular advertisers in this newspaper, please ask them why. If they tell you no one reads our publication, may I suggest that you tell them they are mistaken? YOU read this newspaper — and you are a very important part of his business.

We will continue to endeavor to serve you with the best product each Wednesday that our staff can muster. We like what we do and we hope that you do as well. If so, we want to hear what you have to say. If not, we want to hear from you even more. Our letter box welcomes your thoughts and opinions.

See you next week.

Don't dump in Huron

To the Editor:

Speaking of meaningless shams, Lyon Development/BF&I's $10 million lawsuit to force our township into submission is a prime example of a large corporation exercising the power of the almighty extra dollars to make even more.

We have three exits off I-275 into our community of Huron Township. Currently Lyon/BF&I has a construction permit for a Type II Solid Waste Dump adjacent to the Sibley Road exit. One of the only things holding up construction of the site are the results of a test conducted at BF&I's site in Buffalo, New York on success of their, electrified wire fence. We in Huron Township have a total lack of confidence in a Lyon/BF&I financed study on one of their own sites for the purpose of promoting a site in Huron Township.

Our next exit to the south off I-275 is South Huron. Lyon/BF&I also conveniently holds options on that 200 acre site. I'm sure a garbage dump would be nice at that location to help attract visitors to the main entrance to the beautiful 1,500 acre Willow Metro Park with a swimming pool and tot lot.

On our third and last exit into the community, Mr. Collier, Lyon/BF&I's attorney, deeply thought out quote comes true, "If it were me and I was turned down for a solid waste dump, I'd apply for it to be a TOXIC DUMP."

Yes Mr. Collier, we have a newly formed corporation, E.M.S. (Environmental Management Systems) giving a hell of a try at installing a 300-acre Toxic Waste Dump with a Cyanide Solidification Factory for a centerpiece. It's not going to ever harm you or your family Mr. Collier, but proposing to treat and bury billions of pounds of some of the most hazardous and toxic chemicals known to man in an area surrounded by residents does not appeal to the people of Huron Township. Your statement was uncalled for and shows the typical "DUMP IT ANYWHERE" mentality.

In this well thought out site EMS picked to be their potential victim, over 150 residents can throw a rock into the site from their front lawns. The site has a water table up to 5 inches, that's real evident when my three children canoe from our front lawn into the proposed site.

It will also be a real help for Monroe County, in that 68 billion pounds of waste will sit directly over a recharge aquifer that supplies water to the homeowners' wells in the majority of Monroe County.

I'm sure it will also enhance the safety and atmosphere for the over one million visitors yearly who attend the beautiful Oakwoods Nature Center and Willow Metro Park, located 2,500 feet to the north and east of the proposed Toxic Waste Dump and Cyanide Facility.

The residents of Huron Township only have to drive a couple of miles west on Willow Road to see what a tragedy EMS's sister corporation, City Sand and Gravel has created in Sumpter Township. As a going away gift, EMS also attempted to bless Sumpter with a 300 acre toxic waste dump and facility less than two years ago.

No, Mr. Collier from Lyon/BF&I and Thomas Handyside from EMS, Huron Township doesn't want a fight. We just want to raise our families in a healthy and safe atmosphere, where the stench of garbage, the inevitable polluted streams and seagulls that resemble a locust attack combined with the abandoned and boarded-up homes that surround so many dump sites doesn't happen in our community.

On and off the political rumor mill:

Rumor: Wayne County Executive William Lucas will be nominated for a post in President Ronald Reagan's cabinet following the fall election.

Fact: "So far, Mr. Lucas has not received an offer to serve in Mr. Reagan's cabinet," remarked Sandy Tomilenko, a spokesperson for the executive, who just so happens to be a Democrat. "He is aware of that rumor ... we think it started after Mr. Lucas met with Vice President Bush earlier this year to discuss emission controls and several other issues. 'He would consider an offer.'"

Prediction: Although a post for Lucas in the president's administration may seem farfetched, the speculation lingers. This type of political gossip is fueled by Lucas' tattered image among Democratic Party regulars.

Two of the most influential local Democrats, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young and AFL-CIO Director Tom Turner, do not list Lucas among their top 500,000 friends. Turner, in fact, has resorted to calling Lucas the most foul creature known to unionism ... "a Republican." Having Republican Dennis Nystrom as a highly visible advisor also has infuriated the Democrats.

But a spot in Washington? Even though Lucas' tough budget stands, such as with his proposed closing of Wayne County General Hospital, would seem in line with a conservative administration, a presidential appointment must be rated a long shot.

I'll take the odds, however, and bet on Lucas to land some type of administrative position within one year if the president wins reelection. Mr. Turner no doubt would even pay the moving costs.

Rumor: State Sen. William Faust will soon retire and endorse his longtime friend, Wayne Mayor Patrick Norton, for the seat.

Fact: "That's a long standing rumor," Norton declared after a recent city council meeting, referring to published reports that the former Majority Leader has already decided not to seek reelection. "I'm strongly urging him to seek another term. We're good friends and politically in tune."

But what if the Westland Democrat decided to call it a career? Is Norton a candidate?

"I don't have any indication that he won't seek reelection," Norton responded. "And I just met with him so if he was thinking that way, I would know about it."

Prediction: Norton often has declined to consider running for a state representative's berth but a state senator's seat is another matter. A successful businessman, Norton has the experience and name recognition to rate as a viable candidate whenever Faust calls it quits.

Norton's colleagues kiddingly referred to him as "Senator" the other night. It's a joking matter now but Norton has the clout to someday turn a long standing rumor into reality. Question is: Does Wayne's mayor have the desire to face a rigorous campaign for the State Senate. Yes.

TAYLOR

Rumor: Former Westland Mayor Tom Taylor will oppose incumbent Charles Pickering in the 1985 election.

Fact: Who cares if the balloting is more than one year away? This is Westland, city of nasty campaigns, political strife and even a lawsuit here and there.

A source in the mayor's administration recently revealed that Pickering considers Taylor a likely candidate in the mayoral sweepstakes. After a stormy first term marked by constant skirmishes with the city council, Pickering appears certain to try for a second term.

And the former mayor?

Taylor was out of town and unavailable for comment last week but his candidacy seems a foregone conclusion.

Look for Taylor to be billed as a "unification" candidate hoping to restore order in Westland's government.

Prediction: Pickering vs. Taylor. The campaign will be nasty and the results will be a lot closer than anyone imagines. A third candidate also will come to the forefront, creating a primary. Stay tuned for this political soap opera.

Blood donors

To the Editor:

I wish I could personally thank and shake the hand of every man and woman who took the time to give blood so generously on April 28th at the Canton Township Administration Building. The Blood Drive was our 4th Annual Blood Drive for the Childrens Leukemia Foundations. Our chapter, the Western Wayne County Chapter, sponsored the blood drive.

Standing in front of Meijer's again recalled many pleasant memories of talking to old friends and making new friends. The people recognized the uniform and the Fire Rescue Unit. I think it is easier to associate the need for help with something that stands for life saving and trust.

I am sincerely amazed at the genuine interest and caring people share when approached about a cause that has some how touched their lives or perhaps that of a close friend. Some of the people whom I talked to had never given blood before but said that they always wanted to. I said this would be a good time to share with someone something that only you can do. Most people opened their hearts and although being frightened at the thought of giving blood they wanted to give something of themselves in order that someone else might benefit.

I spoke to people from not only Canton, but Wayne, Westland and the Garden City area. One young man from as far away as Pinckney came all the way back to Canton to give blood for the first time. Thank you, John Roach.

Recalling another lady that I talked to from Westland, she remarked it was also her first time and she was a chicken. I told her she would meet some of the nicest people she would ever meet and they would help her through this because they were giving for the first time too. She said, "I will be there." Thank you, Susan Huettelman.

I wish that I could mention every name of every person that I had talked to for these people have given something of themselves so that others will have the chance to share the hope and happiness that we all wish for them.

Many came for other reasons, and I know there were many, such as the excellent press coverage from our three local papers, the spots on the 'Sandy Show' on Omnicom that so vividly portrayed the need for blood with the film, 'My Friend Has Leukemia,' and the word of mouth of the many friends that were aware.

Our thanks also extend to the generosity of Mitch Howard of the Big Boy in Canton. For the fourth year in a row the Big Boy has provided an excellent lunch for the volunteers and Red Cross workers.

There are many types of heroes who touch our lives, there are those that pull a small child from a river, there are those that rescue people from burning buildings, there are those that protect us from harm and there are those that give their blood. The one thing that could possibly aid in saving all those touched by these heroic people is a blood transfusion. It is the one thing that many times determines life or death.

I thank all for caring. Our chapter needs help with things like the Blood Drive, a cookie sale and other area functions for Children's Leukemia Foundation. If you are interested in donating some time please contact me.

County Chapter,

Pool talk

To the Editor:

In response to Mr. Lyle J. Carlisle, regarding the pool: I doubt very seriously if you could get the majority of the homeowners in Wayne to favor anything that was printed in the headlines of the Wayne Eagle.

In response to the wedge that was set up to further the ambitions and goals of the Wayne Citizens Pool Committee: My committee consists of two blue collar workers, two housewives, and one secretary. At the beginning of this committee, there was serious "Political Overtones."

I would like to say at this time "The Wayne Citizens Pool Committee" is dedicated to serve in their minute way to bring about a swimming pool to all the citizens of Wayne.

In regard to the excessive maintenance costs, being underplayed or buried, now is the time for the citizens to get involved in this committee. We welcome their input, positive or negative.

Last but not least Mr. Carlisle wanted an impartial homeowner to sit in on our pool sessions. We welcome any and all persons in Wayne to attend our meetings on the fourth Tuesday of every month.

Pleasant trip

To the Editor:

Daily we adults are heard asking what is wrong with the youth of America. I must admit

To the Editor:

God save us from morally, bankrupt opportunists like Jerry Falwell. Now he's exploiting the A.I.D.S. hysteria just like he has exploited other emotional issues to get himself publicity and keep millions of dollars flowing in.

He and his misnamed "Moral Majority" (which is neither) have always favored discrimination against gays before, but now they have the A.I.D.S. hysteria to use to advocate closing gay bars and as an excuse to discriminate against us in jobs and housing. While only 3,000 people (gays, lesbians, hemophiliacs and others) have contracted the disease, compared to America's estimated gay population of 20 million, Falwell claims it's "God's judgment upon the homosexuals."

Was Legionnaire's Disease God's wrath upon the American Legion? And did Falwell advocate closing Legion posts, firing Legionnaires from their jobs and denying them housing? How ludicrous THAT would have been. But gay people are fair game.

The A.I.D.S. problem is a very serious one for those people who have it. We should spare no expense to find a cure. But the last thing we need right now is more hysteria created by slick demagogues and preachers of hate like Falwell to serve their own selfish ends.

CHARLES LEDERER

I too have from time to time asked the same question. We seem to constantly hear about the negative in young people and dwell on it.

On May 16 I had a chance to experience the flip side of this issue. I would like to share with you a positive experience I had with a group of young students. It began at 6:15 a.m. when six other faculty members and I took 135 Belleville North Junior High Students to Washington D.C. for the day. (The trip, $141, was TOTALLY paid for by each student's parents, including the cost of substitute teachers for the seven of us.)

I must admit that I was apprehensive as the day of the trip neared. As the trip began to unfold my apprehension turned to trust and peace of mind. The students, a cross section of many socio-economic groups, conducted themselves in a manner that made our job a joy. Imagine, if you will, 135 twelve to fifteen-year-old students in a constant state of exploration and learning without a single disciplinary problem. Then you will have a clear mental picture of what we experienced.

In my thirteen years of teaching I have had many experiences that I look back on with a sense of great pride and satisfaction. None can top the feelings I had as our plane landed last night and our students returned to the care of their parents. I would like to sincerely thank the students and their parents for giving me such a rewarding experience.

To the Editor:

A note of thanks, for publishing "The meaning of the Poppy."

It meant a lot to me and I hope many will read it, and have a better understanding, when they see every year, people out selling poppies.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By John Brimble

Half an avocado filled with vinaigrette is a popular first course. Here's what's better: fold some diced peeled tomato, seasoned with lots of basil, into the dressing and warm it before filling the avocado.

Praline powder — caramelized nuts crushed in the blender or food processor — adds crunch to a smooth mousse, flavors delicious cookies, and tastes great sprinkled on ice cream.

Flavor hot popcorn with grated parmesan cheese. Skip the butter if you're watching your diet.

Braise peeled-and-cored apple rings in melted butter, honey, and lemon juice with plenty of cinnamon and ground ginger. Serve hot or cold with meat or poultry.

Most popular fresh fruit of Americans is the banana, say scientists at Pennsylvania State University. Average consumption is 18 pounds a year!

Mike Hairabedian, the veteran tennis coach at Cherry Hill, sat back and relaxed.

"I've been coaching tennis for 20 years at Cherry Hill," Hairabedian signed, "and I've seen a lot of good boys and girls come through here. I don't know what will happen to our coaching staff if the merger goes through, but I know most of us would like to continue on as coaches."

The merger Hairabedian was referring to is the proposed union between the Wayne-Westland schools and the Cherry Hill School District. A portion of Cherry Hill would be annexed with the Crestwood schools. Although negotiations are going on, the voters in the school districts would have to approve any plan.

"Coaching has been a part of my life as long as I can remember. I love it. And I'd probably find it difficult giving it up," Hairabedian added.

And we really don't see any reason why any dedicated coach should give it up.

Oops, we slipped last week.

And the telephone calls came in.

In last week's edition we said that Jim Fielder was the manager-proprietor of the Belleville Little Caesar's restaurant. Tain't so. Jim is the manager while Ray Verrott owns the distinction of the titles — manager and proprietor and the franchise.

Vernott has been generous enough to sponsor a Little Caesar's baseball tournament which brings together prep teams from Belleville High, Romulus, New Boston Huron and Ypsilanti Lincoln.

Sorry about the error, and any inconvenience it may have caused.

BILL DYE

Bill Dye, former Westland John Glenn grid star who earned a full-ride athletic scholarship for his exceptional playing ability while a member of Coach Chuck Gordon's team, will be playing professional football in Canada. He's signed with Toronto.

The 6-4, 235-pound tight end, completed his collegiate career at Wayne State University where he also doubled as a linebacker. Upon graduating from WSU, and boasting a 3.5 academic record, the 22-year-old Dye will get his opportunity to prove he can play pro ball.

"Bill is an intelligent and outstanding individual," coach Gordon said. "And we wish him the best of luck as he continues his football career."

Glenn sweeps boys, girls' league track titles

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Superlative performances by Westland John Glenn's relay teams opened the doors to the 1984 Northwest Suburban Conference boys' and girls' track & field championships last week.

"Obviously I'm very happy about winning both the girls' and boys' titles," said Glenn's sophomore coach Ernie Righetti. "Our girls' team went undefeated in the league and had an exceptional season."

"The boys came back to avenge a one-point (69-68) defeat at the hands of North Farmington to win the league meet," Righetti said.

The Westlanders had a double gold winner in junior Jeff Meixner who soared 20 feet, 10 inches in capturing a first in the long jump. He also won the high hurdles with a 15.2 seconds performance.

Glenn had the top sprinter in the 100-meter dash in Sean Bono who was clocked in 10.2. Bono was second in the 200-meters with a 23.2 effort. (Since final times were not available after the meet staged at North Farmington, all times here are unofficial.)

Scott Marasheski picked up a gold for his 52.2 performance in the 400-meters, and sophomore Kyle Szukaitis, one of two Glenn qualifiers for the state finals, ran a 2:02.1 to earn the league title in the 800-meters run. Szukaitis, whose father, Jerry, is the Rockets' former cross country coach and present athletic director, registered a 1:59.7 in finishing third in the event at the regionals.

Coach Righetti also had the No. 1 relay team in the 3,200-meters as Szukaitis, Frank Shelly, Rod Lilla and Jim Lakatos registered a 8:18.3. The Rockets came back to win the 800-meter relay with Bill Grisamer, Rob Bell, Marasheski and Bono, turning in a 1:35.0 for their victory.

Joining Szukaitis at the state finals from Glenn will be teammate Ron Bushaw who qualified in the pole vault.

Glenn's girls swept 11 of the 17 first places and posted 172 points en route to the championship. The Westlanders had a triple gold medalist in Laura Grazulis who won the 800-meter (2:28.2), 3,200 meter run (11:55.3) and the 1,600-meter run (5:25.2).

Grazulis also contributed to the victory in the 3,200-meter relay, teaming with Sharon Schoonover, Sherry Witmer, and Eldridge for an enviable 10:02 effort.

Glenn's Karen Opp dominated the sprints as she crossed the finish line in 12.3 for the 100-meters and was clocked in the winning time of 26.6 for the 200-meters.

Tri-River tennis champs

Spartans claim tennis title

With a runner-up regional berth in their hands and the Tri-River Conference title behind them, Cherry Hill netters and Coach Mike Hairabedian will travel to Kalamazoo on Friday in hopes of leaving their mark on the state finals.

"Because this team is very young," Hairabedian said, "I'm not looking for a miracle. If we can get a couple of points at state, I will be extremely pleased."

Hairabedian, who is completing his 20th season as the Spartans' head tennis coach, saw his netters pick up 12 decisive points at the Class B regionals at Cranbrook to finish second to the host (28 points) and qualify for this week's state tournament.

"The kids did a good job at Cranbrook. They faced some tough players," Hairabedian said.

At the regionals, the Spartans' No. 1

Glenn's Rockets perfect spoilers

A goal of every high school baseball team is to win a league championship.

Failing that, the next goal is to play the role of spoiler for the front-runner.

Which is exactly what the Rockets of Westland John Glenn did as they defeated Thurston, 6-5, in nine innings. The loss cost Thurston a full share of the Northwest Suburban League title and helped Garden City to half the trophy.

Glenn finished 4-6 in the conference.

Coach Norm Hoenes was disappointed in the team's finish this season saying, "I thought we were contenders. The league was pretty equal this year. If the season was 20 games long instead of 10, it might have been different."

Glenn got off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but Thurston was tasting the championship and scored three runs as pitcher Mike Blichartz helped his own cause with a three-run homer.

But the Rockets did not give up. They scored a pair of runs to tie it at three runs apiece in the second.

Dave Husak singled to start the inning, followed by a walk to Dave Jensen. A double by left fielder Jason McKarge scored one run and a groundout off the bat of John Clemmons knocked in the other run.

The Rockets took the lead in third, 4-3, and pitcher Jeff Nieman took over from there, handcuffing the Eagles on two hits until the seventh inning.

"Jeff did a really nice job," said Hoenes. "He has one of our most consistent pitchers in the three years he has been on the squad."

Meanwhile, Jensen seemingly made things easier for Nieman and the Rockets with the first varsity home run of his career and the Rockets led, 5-3.

But the Eagles wanted the title and showed it with a two-run rally to tie at the game at five in the seventh inning. But Rocket relief hurler Steve Irwin extricated the Rockets from the situation and left the winning run on first base. Irwin continued his mastery over the Eagles in the ensuing three innings, allowing only a double by Brian McGrath in the eighth inning and fanning five of the last seven batters.

"Steve was very impressive, especially in the eighth and ninth innings," said Hoenes of his sophomore pitcher. "He was tough. He had a great curveball and an overpowering fastball."

In the ninth, with the joyous screams of Glenn's girls' softball team in their ears, the Rockets

Cherry Hill '9' advances to district's

Oster hurls Spartans past Benedictine

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Cherry Hill's Paul Oster turned in a five-hit pitching performance as the Spartans buried Benedictine 12-2 to qualify for Saturday's Class B District Playoffs scheduled for Oak Park High School.

Oster, a junior lefty, picked up his second triumph in as many starts as he humbled the Ravens in the pre-district contest. He fanned 10 and walked three. Loser Don Styte, who lasted four innings, left the game after the Spartans struck for four runs in the bottom of the third.

"We're playing with a little more aggressiveness at the plate and in the field," noted Spartan Coach Ken Mientkiewicz whose ball club will face Dearborn Divine Child in the semi-finals of the districts at 12:30 p.m. "We need to continue to improve."

The Spartans put the game out of reach in the third when, with one-away, Oster was safe on an error, moved the second when Styte walked Steve Radomski then, after Dan Sanchez fanned, Mike Merriman also drew a base on balls to loan the bases. That brought up Mark Leskovitz who sliced a double to right field for a two-run RBI and Tom Storti also doubled, driving in the next two runs.

Cherry Hill gained a 1-0 lead in the first inning which it relinquished 2-1 in the bottom of the second. The Spartans took command in the third with those four runs, added four more in the fourth and iced it with a pair of runs in the fifth and one more in the sixth.

Storti finished the contest with three hits, a double and a pair of singles in four trips, while Leskovitz picked up a single and a double and Merriman wound up with two singles and four RBIs.

The Spartans enter the week with a 13-8 over-all record. They tied Allen Park for second place in the Tri-River Conference after beating the Jaguars 16-10 in a nine inning thriller. Ken Farmer, who worked the first eight innings, got credit for the victory, while Oster was awarded the save.

Melvindale captured the 1984 conference championship.

The Spartans needed to beat

Allen Park to salvage the tie and they did it the hard way — in extra innings. Cherry Hill erupted for six decisive runs in the ninth as Mike Sasseen led off with a single, Farmer was safe on an error, Mark Bayliss followed with a RBI single and then Oster was safe on a miscue, driving in a run. Radomski walked, loading the bases. Sanchez' sacrifice fly accounted for one more run then consecutive walks to Merriman and Bob Bryer brought up Storti who blasted a two-run single to clinch it.

Bayliss had a two-run homer in the second for one of his six four hits and Oster finished with four singles and Radomski accounted for 5 RBIs thanks to four hits. Sasseen contributed three hits in six at-bats.

tallied the winning run. Brad Martin singled with one out, took third on a single by Bruce Billings (who went 5-for-5 on the day), and scored on a force play at second when Glenn Belcher bounced to short.

The Rockets had their victory and, at the same time, had denied the Eagles a full title trophy. The Rockets' team bus flew home with a celebration of this victory and the girls' softball victory that gave them a share of the NWSL title.

Glenn earlier had suffered a tough doubleheader loss to Garden City, 3-2 and 6-5, but they made sure the Cougars worked for every one. The Cougars won the first game with a run in the final inning and withstood a furious Rocket rally to emerge victorious. Clemmons' double with the bases-loaded nearly wrecked their title chances.

Against Dearborn the Rockets split. Dearborn won the opener, 6-4, despite a two-run uprising in the last inning. But Glenn rebounded for a 10-3 victory in the nightcap as Billings went 3-for-4 and scored three runs. Dave Briski smacked a home run for the loyal fans onto the tennis courts and he, Jensen and Donn Wolfe combined on a five-hitter for their 14th triumph in 22 decisions.

Fordson rally stops

Belleville in 7th

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

When the breaks are going against you ... they go against you.

Typical of the season, the breaks were against Belleville which handed over a 3-2 decision to title-hopeful Fordson. The Tractors rallied for a run in the bottom of the seventh to hand Coach Tom Fielder's Tigers their seventh Wolverine A Conference loss in 11 starts.

"You have to be disappointed when you're on the verge of taking one and you give it away," said Coach Fielder whose team was to wrap up the 1984 campaign — weather permitting — Monday at Trenton. "We made three crucial errors against them (Fordson) and it cost us."

Kevin Keeney, the last of four Belleville pitchers, was charged with the loss. Fielder started Ron Thomas who was quickly sidelined when he pulled a muscle in the first inning. Bob Courter took over and worked until the sixth, giving way to Keith Riling.

Belleville blew a 2-0 lead. The Tigers scored their only runs in the first inning when Mike Sprau led off with a single, then Fordson hurler Bob McCormick fanned Rob Shubert, however, when the catcher dropped the ball, Shubert was safe. With runners on first and second, Riling singled one run home, and Mike Tansey's ground out produced the second.

But Fordson came back to score an unearned run in the second, tied it in the fifth and scored a controversial tie-breaker in the seventh.

That controversial inning went something like this. A sacrifice and walk put runners on first and second, and a wild pitch moved up the runners. Fielder then decided to go with an intentional walk, loading the bases. The next batter grounded to Keeney who fired the ball to catcher, Mike Tansey, for what was believed to be the second out and Tansey relayed the ball to first to complete the double play.

However, the ump decided that Tansey didn't have his foot on home plate and ruled the runner safe.

"Those who saw the play said that our catcher did touch the plate, but as we all know, the official always has the final say," sighed Fielder.

Earlier in the week Ann Arbor Huron eliminated Belleville 7-2 from the pre-district competition and qualified for the district's at Plymouth Salem.

Cherry Hill rules Tri-River track...again

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Although they came out of the field events with only 20 points, defending champ, Cherry Hill, mustered seven of the 17 first places to retain for the 13th consecutive season the Tri-River Conference Track & Field Championship.

Coach Richard Gordon's runners went into the meet held at Dearborn Heights Annapolis with a perfect 6-0 league record.

"After only picking up 20 points in the field events, injuries, and then watching our 380-relay team being disqualified, I was very concerned that this young team of mine couldn't handle the pressure," said the Spartan coach. "However, they came through and pulled it out."

The Spartans' 2-mile relay team of Ed Mulrooney, Quinn Lawrence, Richard Smith and Larry Dixon earned a gold with a 8:30 performance. And Ernie Johnson, a junior, covered the 100-yard dash in 10.4 to card a victory.

Cherry Hill's Michael Brown, a sophomore who qualified for the state in the 100-yards with a 10.2 clocking, had the misfortune of sustaining an injury in the long jump competition. In order that his team would pick up a point in the 100-yard dash, Brown walked the 100-yards.

"We don't know how serious the injury is," said Coach Gordon. "Hopefully, he'll be ready for the state."

The state championships will be staged on Saturday at Caro, Michigan.

Cherry Hill's 440-yard relay team won all-league distinction thanks to Donnie Watson, Zarick Duran, Mike Magyar and Ernie Johnson who finished with the winning time of 46.2, while the Spartans also finished 1-2 in the 440 with Richard Smith (51.6) and Mulrooney (52.0).

Half-miler Larry Dixon hit the tape in the winning time of 2:05 and Richard Smith came back to win the 220-yard dash in 23.8.

Although Melvindale won the mile, Cherry Hill received exceptional efforts from sophomore Fryzalski Zirker, who finished third and David Yao, a freshman, who was sixth.

Gordon put together a team of Mulrooney, Eric Tuss, Mark Wohlfeil and Larry Dixon to capture the gold for the mile relay. The foursome turned in the winning time of 3:35.

Glenn's runners win track titles

Ann Parish won the shot put competition with a toss of 36 feet, 10 1/2 inches, while the discus went to teammate Diane Cranston whose orbit of 108 feet, 7 inches couldn't be topped. Julie Hysko cleared 5 feet, 1 inch to claim the high jump event.

The Rockets' 800-meter relay team with a line-up of Tammy Ethridge, Angela Patterson, Michele Sanchez and Opp won the gold.

The Westlanders brought the curtains down to an 8-1 overall season and an untarnished conference campaign. The Rockets finished third behind West Bloomfield and Pontiac Northern at the recently conducted Class A Regional hosted by West Bloomfield.

Glenn produced a regional champ in Ann Parish who won the gold in the shot with a put of 36 feet, 12 inches, while the 3,200 meter relay team of Shoonover, Sanchez, Eldridge and Laura Grazulis also qualified for state by placing third with a time of 9:54.

Opp was runner-up in the 200-meter at the regional, covering the distance in 59.6.

singles, Eric Berg, made it to the semi-finals before dropping sets of 6-4, 6-0, to Clawson's Ted Nagraba. In the No. 2 singles, David Rintz lost in the second round to John Sparks, also of Clawson, 6-3, 6-0, while the No. 3 stick, sophomore John Knaus, fell in the semis to Cranbrook's Ron Ashair, 6-1, 6-0.

Spartan David Wilson also reached the semi-finals where he was defeated 6-2, 6-4 by University of Detroit High netter, Steven Davis.

Cherry Hill's Kevin Payne teamed with Mike Rankin to provide the points in the No. 1 doubles. The duo also made it to the semi-final round where they met Clawson's Kinsler and Adams and lost 6-1, 3-6, 4-6.

In the No. 2 doubles, Donald Petrere and Paul Lee and Brian Rodd Wohlfeil were ousted in the second round, 6-0, 6-1, by Cranbrook's team of Nosenchuck and Hagenlocker.

A look at the unknown Lion

Defensive Back Al Latimer of the Detroit Lions is a player without fanfare. He was a second stringer in college, was released by several pro teams even quit for a year. All of a sudden last season he finds himself in the Lions' starting lineup.

In fact, Latimer was the best Defensive Back on the team until he suffered a leg injury in mid-season that caused him to miss the rest of the year.

Recently, Latimer was a guest on my "Sports Talk" radio show and I asked him how he finally became a Detroit Lion.

LATIMER — I sat out a year, three seasons ago, then I decided I wanted to give it another shot. I called the Lions and they told me I would have to come to the 'Gong Show.' That's where they look at players who call them for a tryout. There were about 95 players there, but I managed to impress them enough to get an invite to training camp. One thing led to another and here I am.

ME — You didn't even start in college. How did you end up getting a pro tryout?

LATIMER — An assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles contacted me. Worked me out, was impressed and invited me to camp. I made the team and played in Philadelphia for a year and a half before I got released. After that, I played some with the San Francisco 49ers before going to Winnipeg in the Canadian League.

ME — What made you decide to return to pro football? And why pick the Lions?

LATIMER — I knew, with my experience, what it took to play in the NFL and the year I sat out, I worked on those skills. I knew the Lions needed help in the secondary and I felt, with my ability and experience, I could compete for a job on the team.

ME — Last year year you moved into the starting lineup and I felt you were the best defensive back on the team. How did you feel you played.

LATIMER — I thought I played well, but I still haven't proven myself. I have to show I can do it for a full season.

ME — Who's the toughest receiver for you to cover?

LATIMER — Probably James Lofton of Green Bay and Alfred Jenkins of Atlanta. Lofton, more than Jenkins, because he has an attitude of aggressiveness, along with his great speed and great hands. He also runs good routes and he keeps you honest by running a lot of takeoff patterns. Lofton is probably the best.

ME — The Lions' defensive backfield was considered the weak spot of the team going into last season, but overall, it was one of the team's strongest suits. Who gets the credit?

LATIMER — You have to start with the scouts. They found the players, saw their talents. The coaches also believed in us and coached us in the finer points of the game. We paid attention. We learned. We went at it with some heart and gusto and as a result, we jelled a little. But I think our finer days are ahead of us. I think, given our talent, that in two or three years you'll see a couple of us in the defensive backfield perform in the Pro Bowl.

ME — As a defensive back, what goals do you set for yourself?

LATIMER — Don't give up anything cheap. Don't get burned.

Make 'em earn everything. I also set a goal of 13 interceptions this season, which is not out of reach if they throw my way enough.

ME — What are your strong points and weak points as a defensive back?

LATIMER — Strong points are probably speed and quickness and peripheral vision. I can see a lot. Also concentration and I pay attention to details. The only weak point, as I know, is my size and maybe I've been a little fragile in the past. But based on my performance in the rehabilitation program, I've been on durability, I think will be one of my strong points. My leg is about 100 percent.

ME — Last season the Lions won their division. How do you see the Central Division this season?

LATIMER — It'll be an improved division. Chicago had a good draft. Green Bay is great offensively and will be better defensively with Forrest Gregg coaching. Tampa Bay will be better. I don't know about Minnesota. They might have trouble. But, the other teams have to catch us. We jelled as a unit last season. We're a lot stronger. I think it's going to be hard for them to take the title from us.

Listen to Ron Cameron weekdays from 4 to 5 p.m. on WCAR 1090 AM. You can be a part of the show. "Sports Talk" is broadcast Saturday Nite at 7 from Tom's Tavern on Michigan Avenue, about a mile west of Merriman in Wayne.

Northville ousts Romulus in pre-district's

A grand slam first inning homer by an ex-Romulus resident sparked Northville's 11-3 victory over Romulus in the pre-district baseball tournament staged Friday.

"It's ironic that the kid should hit his first ever grand slam off of his former teammates," said Romulus coach Dennis Stoh. "Those four runs helped do us in."

Stoh was referring to Jeff Pawloski who moved to Northville earlier in the year. He faced pitcher Rick Dybicki with the bases loaded and it was one of the longest homers I've seen hit in this park,"

"With only 2 starters back from a year ago, I'm satisfied with what this team managed to accomplish."

Dennis Stoh

hammered the homer that paved the way for five Northville runs in the first inning.

"He (Pawloski) sent that ball into a real strong wind and Stoh noted.

The homer also led to Dybicki's demise. He left after only two-thirds of an inning, giving way to Jeff Barks who pitched the next four. Barks was eventually relieved by Tony Yandura.

Dan Nielsen, who went the distance, struck out four and walked three in an 8-hitter, got credit for the victory.

Nielsen gave up a single run in the second inning when the Eagles bunched together three of their eight hits thanks to Dybicki, Dave Blevins and Joe Atherton who each had singles.

In the fourth, Romulus struck for their first two runs of the 1984 campaign as Blevins was safe on an error, moved to second when Steve Thornsberry singled and when Jeff Barks walked, the Eagles had the bases loaded. Then, Sean Vernatt came through with a single, driving in the two runs.

However, Nielsen

buckled down and got the next three batters and went on to win the key game. Northville will now advance to the district tournament to be conducted on Saturday at Plymouth Salem.

The loss left the Eagles and Coach Stoh with an over-all 18-14 record on the season. About the season Stoh had this comment:

"With only two starters back from a year ago, I'm satisfied with what this team managed to accomplish. It's been a good year and, although it's going to be tough replacing players like Boatright and Dybicki next year, I feel we will have one of our best teams in 1985. This group of kids love baseball. They are an easy group to coach."

'New Sensations' sensational

LOU REED
"New Sensations"
(RCA)

"New Sensations" is the latest chapter in the Book of Lou Reed — an engrossing, startling and often wistful volume. It has had its ups through the years ("Loaded," "Legendary Hearts," etc.) as

LOU REED NEW SENSATIONS

LOU REED
NEW SENSATIONS

1. I Love You, Suzanne • Endlessly Jealous • My Red Joy • Turn To Me • New Sensations • 2. Down The Things That We Want To • What Becomes A Legend Most • Fly Into The Sun • My Friend George • High In The City • Down At The Arcade well as its downs ("Sally Can't Dance," "The Bells").

Happily, this latest addition to the legend is one of the best in years; a stripped-down Reed confronts his latest guise as a happy married man, gives it a thumbs-up, but still reminisces every now and then, as he does on "High In The City": "I got my mace/You got your knife/Got to protect your own life/High in the city."

But mainly, this is an album that celebrates (or tries to) the good life, as Reed now sees it. The man who once sang that heroin was his life and his wife, now croons "I don't want pain/I want warm, loving care/And I don't want to give it up/I want to say married." As a matter of fact, the LP's opening cut, "I Love You, Suzanne," an ode to his wife with an irresistible rock-along rhythm, says it quite bluntly.

Spats? Sure, Lou has 'em. Just check out "Endlessly Jealous," which documents the confrontation with one's own persona — the part you don't want to admit to.

More than anything, it's a song about growing up: "I'm sorry I said that/I'm sorry I did that/I'm sorry I hit you/I'm sorry I'm sorry/Endlessly jealous of you/Endlessly jealous of me — the man you thought that I could be." I wonder if Lou's been in therapy or something?

The title cut is the most telling autobiographical number Reed has done since "Coney Island Baby." It's riveting, absolutely astounding the listener with not only its sincerity, but that it's so good, all the while knowing that if anyone else wrote a song about riding his motorcycle, stopping off for a burger at a hillbilly bar in the mountains where the locals are discussing football, it would be a load of tripe. So why isn't it when he does it?

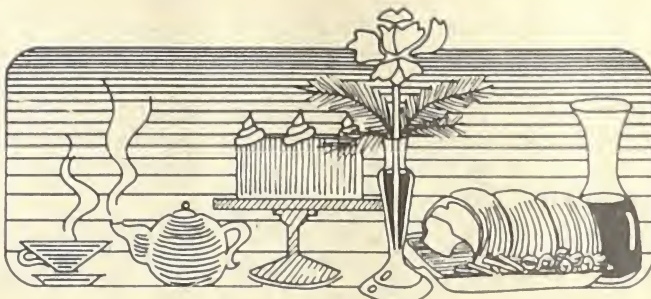

Because, he's Lou Reed.

Two Romulus women are $100 richer after winning that amount in a "one-in-95" chance to win $100,000 from WMJC "Magic" Radio.

HELEN MILLER

Helen Miller and Joanne Pezzullo both won $100 and "Magic Keys," which they will use to try and unlock a Brink's armored truck containing the $100,000 cash prize. All "Magic Key" winners will try their special keys in the truck's lock at the Sheraton Oaks Hotel in Novi, following a champagne reception and dinner June 3.

Both women won the cash and "Magic Keys" after being the ninth caller to the radio station after hearing the "Key Song of the Day."

JOANNE PEZZULLO

Miller is the mother of four children. Pezzullo and her husband also have four children.

Trouble shooters

Paul Taylor and

Louis Jeffrey of Belleville High School are among winning two-member teams from 74 Michigan High Schools who will compete in the state-wide finals of the Automobile Club of Michigan's Trouble Shooting Contest tomorrow in Plymouth.

The twosome qualified for the finals in a written examination April 3. In the state finals, each team works against the clock to correct problems on similarly "bugged" 1984 Plymouth Turismo. The winning Michigan team will advance to the national championship in June in Arlington Stadium, Texas, and will compete against the top teams from 49 other states.

Sponsored jointly for the first time by Chrysler/Plymouth and the Automobile Club of Michigan, the hands-on competition is one of 50 contests being held in May throughout the country. Prizes and scholarships for winning students total $125,000.

"The purpose of the contest is to encourage mechanically talented high school students to further their training," said Robert Cullen, contest coordinator for the Auto Club. "It complements our efforts to promote the training and certification of qualified auto service technicians."

More than two-thirds of all past participants, or approximately 28,000 students, have taken full- or part-time jobs as auto service technicians, according to Robert Brent of the Chrysler/Plymouth Dealership Association.

FINANCE COMPANY SHOULD KNOW IF YOU HAVE A PROBLEM WITH YOUR MOBILE HOME

Dear Letter Writer:
My wife and I bought a mobile home, and there are so many things wrong with it, it isn't funny. I think the bank should know what's going on. After all, they own more of the mobile home than I do. We really want and need the repairs done. Maybe if the bank knows, they will help put pressure on the manufacturer to do something quickly and live up to the warranty.

Sincerely, MM

Dear Bank Representative:
This letter is being sent to you for the purpose of apprising you of the defects which presently exist in my 1984 mobile home, which, as you know, was for in excess of $30,000.
Please make this letter a permanent part of our loan file.
The home was purchased from a company located in the Detroit metropolitan area. By a copy of this letter, the Sales and Service Managers of the Sales Office are being notified of the needed repairs.
I would appreciate the Sales and Service Managers acknowledging acceptance of this correspondence and informing me as to their intentions regarding

- correction of the following defects:
1. Skirting on back of trailer is improperly installed.
 2. There is a hole punched in the siding near the side door.
 3. Two window screens have bowed frames.
 4. Columns and footings are missing under the expando.
 5. Roof is missing numerous shingles.
 6. Aluminum siding and expando are pushed in and dented in many areas.
 7. Back drain under the home leaks.
 8. Fireplace chimney is crooked.
 9. Eaves are crooked.
 10. Molding throughout the home is missing.
 11. Carpet near front door is frayed and jutting out.
 12. There is glue on one of the vinyl wallboards.
 13. Bathroom fan is extremely noisy.
 14. Bath tub is cracked.
 15. Smoke alarm is installed upside down.
 16. Handles are missing from the fireplace doors.
 17. Liquor bar and room divider walls do not match.
 18. Toilet bowl is cracked and rust stained.
 19. Shower stall door leaks; floor remains wet.
 20. Heat register is missing.

21/ All door frames, inside and out, are out of square.
As is evident, there is a substantial amount of work needed on my home. It is my intention to protect my warranty and secure the needed repairs as soon as possible.
Would you please inform me as to what, if anything, you can do to assist me with this problem.
I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, MM

4. Open Floor Discussion
Pauline Quinley, 22106 Sumpter Road, asked the Board if they were going to protest the damage being done to the Township by City Sand trucks. A City Sand truck just recently missed their bedroom by 7 feet, if it had been one foot over it would have shoved a 30 foot blue spruce into the bedroom. She is tired of the damage that they are doing to the Township. This is the third time there has been damage to the Quinley property. The City Sand truck took down two bushes, cracked the driveway, took down a 30 foot silver maple and damaged a 30 foot blue spruce, that may have to be replaced, and will have to re-sod or seed the yard.

Mrs. Stoltz questioned the voters registration process for Senior Citizens. Mrs. Sulkey asked what was being done about the ditch cleaning. Attorney advised a lawsuit has been started and a June 8 court date has been set.

D. Welch asked to speak under the Engineer's Report, Supervisor's Report and Item F under New Business.
Mr. Leffler questioned his ownership of several lots in the Martinsville Cemetery. Mr. Hurd asked about a culvert that was to have been installed in the driveway to the back.

Mrs. Quinley asked for the name of the judge that was handling the City Sand lawsuit. Judge Maureen P. Reilly.
Mrs. Drake asked when the tires on Wear Road were going to be picked up.

Open Floor Discussion Closed.

D. A discussion period was held by Mr. Leffler, the Board and the Attorney as to the disposition of lots at the Martinsville Cemetery. Mr. Leffler is of the opinion that his father was given 8 lots back in 1936. Mr. Leffler stated they were donated to his father by Mr. Atyeo. The Attorney advised that people have the belief that they have lots reserved in the cemetery, but a search of the Township records show that no one owns these lots. According to the Township ordinance the Township cannot give away lots. They cannot act on a lot until someone is deceased.

The people do not have records, the Township does not have records, therefore, no records exist.

The Township has amended the Cemetery Resolution so that lots may be purchased on a time payment plan.

Motion by Huziak, supported by Banotai the Board dedicate Lot 47, in Section 5 D, of Martinsville Cemetery to Mr. Roy Leffler. Motion carried unanimously.
